

MAT Holdings, Inc.

International Marketing Analyst -Analyzing information about a particular international market; examining and making recommendations on the company's products and how they are meeting the customers' needs; ensuring continuous availability of the company's products; creating international market forecasts for manufacturing company; coordinating product logistics using SAP; analyzing the potential cost of a product and vendor modifications to meet customers' requirements; analyzing sourcing issues that affect customers' satisfaction with the company's products; determining the most effective marketing and logistics strategies for the company's products; and meeting with management to review recommendations to increase market size and to streamline operations.

Requirements – Master's Degree or foreign degree equivalent in Marketing or Business and one year's experience in the job offered or one year's experience in the Marketing or Procurement field.

Special requirements – Experience with coordinating product logistics using SAP and creating international market forecasts for manufacturing company.

Any Applicant who is interested in this position may apply by regular mail to:

Human Resources
Midwest Air Technologies
6700 Wildlife Way
Long Grove, IL 60047